

I further will and direct that in the event my son Carl P. Burrier shall survive me, that my Executors herein named shall hold his share in trust, to invest the same in good securities or deposit in bank at interest and from the principal of said share pay unto my said son the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per year together with the interest accrued thereon, until said share has been fully expended, provided he shall so long live; and provided, however, that in case of any unusual or protracted illness, medical or hospital expense, said Executors or the survivor of them may make such payments from the principal in excess of $500.00 per year as they may deem reasonable and proper for his care and comfort. Said fund to be administered with the jurisdiction or supervision of any Court and without an accounting, and said fund shall not be liable to attachment or seizure for or on account of his debts, and cannot be pledged, assigned or the payments anticipated.

I further will and direct that in the event he should die before this bequest has been fully expended as above provided, that the residue thereof, after making the payments herein before specified unto his two daughters, shall be paid unto his surviving brothers and sisters, share and share alike.

LASTLY, I constitute, nominate and appoint Roger Deal Burrier, Emerson Edward Burrier and Mary Adeline Burrier, and the survivor or survivors of them, to be the Executors and Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, without bond, hereby revoking all other wills and codicils by me heretofore made.
